

Clark- McClure Scholarship
For Females residing in Bladen County
Established 2018
Administered by Elizabethtown Presbyterian Church Women

Ms. Amy Clark wished to help ladies of Bladen County further their education, enhance their lives, and enrich the lives of others. She generously funded the Clark-McClure tuition scholarship honoring her mother, Ernestine, and dear friend, Cynthia McClure.

Scholarship Procedure

1. January: Scholarship announced and applications available.
2. March 10th: Scholarship application deadline to the church office. Only complete scholarship applications will be accepted.
3. March/April: Clark-McClure Scholarship Committee selects the scholarship winners and records via the Committee minutes.
4. May: Committee sends a letter to each recipient to notify them of their selection on or before May 15th. The student is responsible for providing a tuition bill or official document from the university to the church office. This document should include your student ID number.
5. August: Committee verifies pending enrollment for fall semester.
6. August: Committee directs distribution of funds directly to College.

The Elizabethtown Presbyterian Women are entrusted with the care of this mission. If you are a female residing in Bladen County and would like to apply, please provide the following:

For New Applicants:

1. Completed application form
2. Student Information Release Form
3. Tell us about yourself and your plans in a one to three-page essay. We would particularly like to learn about your character, work ethic, plans/dreams for the future, hobbies, activities you are involved in, and how this scholarship could benefit you.

4. Your most recent school transcript(s). Unofficial transcripts are acceptable.
5. Two letters of recommendation. We would love to hear from a teacher, pastor, neighbor or friend who might share with us why you are a good candidate to receive this scholarship.

For Returning Applicants:

1. Completed application form
2. Student Information Release Form
3. Please provide us an update (no longer than one page) on your goals and aspirations. Have you changed your major? Have your career goals changed? Are you part of any clubs, organizations? Any positive or challenging experiences while attending college?
4. Your most recent school transcript(s). Unofficial transcripts are acceptable.

PLEASE NOTE:

- This is a tuition only scholarship that is paid directly to the institution of higher learning.
- If you receive notification that you have been awarded the Clark-McClure Scholarship, you must provide a bill or official tuition document, that includes your student ID number, from the educational institution you plan to attend. This document must be turned in to Elizabethtown Presbyterian Church office.
